

Q Don't you want to in justice to your self, shed all the light you can on the disappearance and reappearance of these papers?

A I am telling you the truth from the start.

Q And you won't tell us who you called up besides your lawyer? A No.

Q What time did you call?

A I didn't say I called up anybody.

Q What time did you call the person up you won't tell us about?

A I didn't say I called up anybody.

Q Yes you did, and you say you won't tell us who it was.

Do you say now you didn't call anybody but your lawyer?

A Well, I say may be I did.

Q Well, what time did you maybe you did? What time? Because we can trace the call for you if you don't want to tell us, if you will give us the time.

A Is there any reason - suppose I admit I called up another party at ten o'clock.

Q Maybe nothing of it, but you seem to think a lot of it.

MR. SIMPSON: I think some officer ought to take these into control (referring to papers) This gentleman may not know what he is giving us. I think he ought to go out with a trooper and take a receipt for
